

ROMEYNE ROBERT AND UGUCCIONE SORBELLO
FOUNDATION

Antonella Valoroso holds a degree in Letters and Philosophy from the University of Naples “Federico II” and a PhD from Yale University. She is a professor and researcher with publications in Italian and international journals, and contributions to edited volumes in Italy and the U.S. Since 2010, as a member of the Scientific Committee, she has conducted research at the Fondazione Ranieri di Sorbello ETS, curating exhibitions and publications.

A member of the Sorbello Foundation Board since 2020, she currently coordinates the activities of the Romyne Robert and Uguccione Sorbello Foundation and the Sorbello Fellowship.